3 housing associations

19 interviewees (13 women/6 men)

”the human factor is a threshold to overcome”

“real sustainability would be to be self-sufficient”

”I believe in people, not technology”

- Housing associations could be arenas for transition, but...
- ...also reproduce power structures & exclude a multitude of perspectives

- Need to expose and visualize these power relations.
- Find ways of working intersectionally, to address fundamental transitions in everyday life
