

“The bucket”

Changing equipment for cold-water surfing

“The bucket” by a cold-water surfer. The colors and material fit in the environment.

The bucket has different straps to be carried by. The mat can be placed on top for transport.

The bucket is made in isolating silicone that protects the user and the gear from the environment. The straps are made in a water resistant fabric so that they can be removed and washed.