

Handling of cases concerning written exams for examinees with compensatory support

The examinee has received compensatory support as well as clear information about how the written exam will be conducted.

The examiner has been enabled a clear workflow as well as security on a legally secure handling of compensatory support.

The administrators at relevant school have together with Tentafunka ensured that all students with compensatory support have received a uniform and legally secure handling of the written exam.

